

60 YEARS AGO A TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE BEGAN:

Charles E. Anesi

Nat P. Ozmon

Charles (“Charlie”) Anesi began a firm in 1955 focusing on representing injured workers in workers’ compensation claims. Thereafter, he merged his firm with one founded by Nat Ozmon – one of the premier trial lawyers of his generation. Together, these two men built a firm founded on certain core principles: that every client deserves the utmost respect; that every case should be aggressively litigated to obtain the maximum result for each client; that each lawyer should reflect professionalism, integrity, and adhere to the highest ethical standards; and finally - that your word is always your bond.

EACH NEW GENERATION OF PARTNERS HAS BUILT UPON THAT TRADITION:

For the past 60 years, Anesi, Ozmon, Rodin, Novak & Kohen, LTD. has not only embraced these core principles but has become one of the premier personal injury/workers’ compensation firms in the state. Although our tradition of representing the men and women of organized labor remains a vital core of our practice – our history of record-setting verdicts and settlements has been extended to cases involving medical malpractice, transportation negligence, and product liability.

THE LEGACY ESTABLISHED 60 YEARS AGO STILL DEFINES WHO WE ARE AND WHAT WE DO:

The lawyers who created this firm provided a foundation which we all respect, cherish, and promulgate. Each lawyer in our firm strives to be the best lawyer, advocate and counselor for the clients who place their trust in us. It is not surprising that many of our partners are listed in the Best Lawyers of America, Superlawyers, and Leading Lawyers. That tradition continues with two of our associates being listed as “Rising Stars” by Superlawyers. The tradition of excellence which began in 1955 still defines the essential character of our lawyers and our law firm 60 years later.
